

Fascisti Seizing Towns In Italy; Cabinet Asks People To Keep Order

Secret Hoard Gives New Clue

PAINEVILLE, O., October 28.—(By the United Press)—Authorities today consider taking Henry Burns, charged with slaying his wife, to the rudely constructed grave in the timber near here, where her mutilated body was found. If Burns succeeds in maintaining his composure after cross-examination today, he will be taken to the grave between midnight and three a. m. tomorrow, it was indicated.

CLEVELAND, October 28.—(By the Associated Press)—A secret hoard of $2,700 missing from his home where Henry Burns told police authorities he cached it, provided Lake county authorities with a new lead today in their attempt to solve the murder of Burns' wife, whose body was found late Wednesday in a shallow grave near Painesville. Prosecutor Ostrander and Deputy Sheriff Rasmussen, of Lake county, spent several hours last night searching for the money in the Burns home and in talking to neighbors.

At the same time witnesses were found who say they saw a man and a woman they believed to be Burns and Mrs. Burns leave their home in an automobile late Tuesday night, according to Deputy Sheriff Rasmussen. This the deputy sheriff said, added an important link to the chain of circumstantial evidence in the case. The man and woman, the witnesses told the Lake county officials, entered a car similar to that used by Burns. The women then returned to the house, changed her light coat for a fur coat, and returned, carrying a flashlight. A fur coat, torn and bloody, was near the spot where Mrs. Burns' body was found and a flashlight on

Tells Jury Of Hammer Murder

LOS ANGELES, October 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Prosecution and defense were busy today with preparations for the resumption Monday of the trial of Mrs. Clara Phillips for the murder of Mrs. Albert Tremaine Meadows, young widow, who was beaten to death with a hammer. No session was held today.

Yesterday Mrs. Peggy Caffee, former chorus girl, and principal witness for the state, gave the jury the version of a reputed eye witness to the slaying. After declaring that she had seen Mrs. Phillips strike Mrs. Meadows repeatedly with a hammer, and had seen the defendant bending over the unconscious form of the widow, Mrs. Caffee gave her version of her alleged trip back into the city from the slaying district. The witness testified: "As we were driving toward town she said: 'You remember Alberta Meadows admitted receiving those things from my husband.' I made no answer as I knew she did not. I asked her how she could go home and wasn't her conscience guilty. She replied: 'I would kill any woman'."

This barricade, with a bulldog and a shotgun, are the means by which Mrs. Jane Gibson (insert) has tried to obtain solitude on her New Jersey farm since she told detectives that she witnessed the murder of Rev. Edward Hall and Mrs. Mills.

Returned To Murder Scene

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., October 28.—(By the United Press)—Mrs. Jane Gibson, eye witness in Hall-Mills murder case, has disappeared from her home it became known today. Prosecutor Mott would not say whether she had left with his consent or not. Mrs. Gibson is believed to have gone into hiding as a result of a threat made against her by persons taking an interest in the case.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., October 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Four hours after she had witnessed the shooting of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall, rector of the Episcopal Church of St. John the Evangelist, and his choir leader, Mrs. Eleanor Reinhardt Mills, on the night of September 14, Mrs. Jane Gibson returned to the scene and saw the woman she says was present when the two were slain, bending low over the body of the rector weeping bitterly. Neither the man who Mrs. Gibson has told the authorities shot Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills nor the automobile parked nearby at the time of the murder was in sight when she made the second visit.

This and the statement that Mrs. Mills escaped from her assailants after the rector was killed, and hid behind bushes nearby, only to be captured and dragged back to the spot under the crab apple tree, were amazing details in the eye witness story as retold yesterday by Mrs. Gibson to special Deputy Attorney General Wilbur Mott.

Confident that he has solved the murder, Prosecutor Mott went ahead today with the work of assembling corroborative evidence. He indicated to newspaper men that no arrests will be made until he has presented the case to the Somerset county grand jury.

The pig farm of Mrs. Gibson was again under guard today to prevent newspaper men from talking further with her.

Five Eskimo Tribes Had Never Seen White Man

COPENHAGEN, October 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Five Eskimo tribes who had never seen a white man were encountered by Knud Rasmussen, the Danish explorer, in a trip of 3,000 kilometers from Admiralty inlet at the northern part of Baffin Island to Yath-Kyed Lake, Keewatin. Extremely primitive and unable to obtain blubber, these new found Eskimos dwell in snow huts without heat.

There was every indication that they were inland tribes which led Rasmussen, in his report made public today by the committee of the fifth Thule expedition to Arctic, North America, to endorse the theory of the Danish Professor Stensby that the Eskimos were originally Indian tribes who became lost in the northern wildernesses. When Rasmussen came upon the Eskimos in his recent journey, they hid their women folk and children and made ready to defend themselves until he saluted them in the Eskimo tongue. Immediately their attitude changed. The women and children tumbled out of their hiding places and the men embraced the explorer, showering their simple hospitality upon him. They were of a decidedly lower stage of civilization than the Greenlanders. The winter climate Rasmussen encountered was even more harsh than that of Greenland. The temperature was fifty degrees centigrade below zero.

Mayfield Scores Victory

DALLAS, TEXAS, October 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Earle B. Mayfield today was a step farther along in his contest for a seat in the United States senate as a result of the state supreme court last night deciding his name could be placed on the November election ballot as the Democratic candidate. The court held that the district court injunction against listing him as a candidate, issued because of alleged, excessive campaign expenditures, could not become effective, inasmuch as the court issuing it was without proper jurisdiction and the persons seeking it were not qualified to receive it.

Heat Records In Kansas; Winter On Pacific Coast

KANSAS CITY, MO., October 28.—(By the Associated Press)—October heat records were set at points in this section yesterday, the thermometer reaching 86 degrees at Topeka, Kansas, and 85 here. The temperature at Topeka yesterday was the warmest October 27 in 27 years. The previous high record for the day was 80 degrees. The previous record for Kansas City was 83.5 recorded 34 years ago.

With the clothing was found a letter addressed to Mrs. Helen Leaman, No. 1555 South Queen St., Lancaster, Penna., which read in part: Dearest Helen:—

"May God forgive me for what I am doing, but there is no other way. Your happiness requires that you be free and this is the only way to make that possible. Please try to understand. It all seems like a dream, but it is only too real."

"Fame, fame, is cheaply earned by fleeting breath."

"Now at last you will understand that I love you."

With the letter was a newspaper clipping stating that Mrs. Helen Leaman had filed application for divorce from John E. Leaman. There was also a bank book on the Union Trust Company of Lancaster. Showing a balance of several hundred dollars.

Southern Ohio Maximum Coal Prices Named

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Maximum prices have been agreed upon and put into effect for the sale of bituminous coal produced in the Pittsburgh district of Pennsylvania and mining districts of Southern Ohio and in the Pittsburgh No. 8 Ohio district. Fuel Distributor Spens announced today, which in all cases constitute reductions under figures hitherto charged by operators. The new schedule fixes a maximum of $4.50 per ton in the Pittsburgh district, $4.75 per ton in the southern districts of Ohio and $4.25 per ton in the No. 8 Ohio district. A large per cent of the operators concerned have agreed to adhere to the new schedule which provides the reductions ranging from $1.50 to $2.25 per ton.

FLORENCE, PISA AND OTHER TOWNS TAKEN OVER BY THE FASCISTI

ROME, October 28.—(By the Associated Press)—The cabinet council has been in session since midnight in order to receive reports from the provinces where the Fascisti movement has taken a subversive direction and to adopt necessary measures to meet the situation.

The cabinet decided first to issue a proclamation declaring a state of siege in all the provinces beginning at noon today but later this decision was modified and a proclamation was issued urging the public to maintain order in the face of insurrectionary attempts.

The Italian cabinet in a proclamation to the people says "sedition movements having manifested themselves in certain provinces of Italy having as their object the interruption of normal functions of the state's powers and calculated to plunge the country into grave trouble, the government has as far as possible tried means of conciliation in the hope of re-establishing peace and reaching a peaceful solution of the crisis."

"In the face of such insurrectionary attempts it is the duty of the retreating government by all means, at whatever cost, to maintain law and order and this duty it will carry out to the full in order to safeguard the citizens and free constitutional institutions."

"It is the government's expectation that the citizens will remain calm and have confidence in the measures taken for their safety."

"Long live Italy, long live the King."

Reports received by the cabinet council from a number of points in Central Italy show that the Fascisti are extending their movement with a view to exerting pressure for the formation of Fascist cabinet.

The Fascist ministry despite its resignation is acting with energy to re-establish order. Rome and all of the large cities up to the present time, have not been the scene of any disturbances of moment.

LONDON, October 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Martial law was proclaimed in Italy today to take effect at noon today, but the proclamation later was rescinded, it is stated in despatches from the Stefani Agency in Rome. The semi-official news source.

It is explained that the withdrawal of the proclamation is the result of an improvement in the situation. Special despatches early this morning told of the beginning of a concerted movement by the Fascisti against several towns. Florence, Pisa, Cremona and other chief centers, were declared to have been taken over by the Fascisti forces, who deposed the state authorities and assumed command. Apparently, according to these advices, there was no resistance.

Communications in all parts of the country are badly disorganized.

King Victor Emmanuel is known to have returned to Rome last night with the intention of conferring today with the various political leaders in an endeavor to form a new cabinet to succeed the Fascist ministry, which was forced out by the threats of the Fascisti.

RECTOR AND JUDGE'S WIFE VICTIMS OF TEMPORARY INSANITY OF THE WOMAN

HAYVE, MONT., October 28.—(By the Associated Press)—The Rev. Leonard Jacob Christler, rector of St. Mark's Church of the Incarnation here, and widely known as the "bishop of all outdoors," and Mrs. Marguerite Carleton, wife of a former Montana district judge, who were killed yesterday in the clergyman's home, were the victims of temporary insanity on the part of Mrs. Carleton, in the opinion of local officials.

The theory of the officers received confirmation from Dr. D. S. Mackenzie who said that when he arrived at the Christler home, the pistol with which the two had been shot still was grasped by Mrs. Carleton's hand with her finger on the trigger.

In an unsuccessful effort to establish a motive for the shooting, officers yesterday partly reconstructed a number of mutilated letters found in a room Mrs. Carleton had occupied in a local hotel. They declared how-

HUGE FUND FOR FIGHT ON PROHIBITION

PARIS, October 28.—(By the Associated Press)—A large fund reaching many millions of francs has been pledged by the wine interests of Europe to make a "merciless" campaign against prohibition in the United States and other countries. The fight will be waged through the newly organized international league against prohibition with headquarters here.

After reading what the political candidates have to say about each other most folks begin to wonder what will become of the country if any of them are elected. Here's for tomorrow:

OHIO—Generally fair tonight and Sunday. Warner, tonight and in both portions Sunday.

KENTUCKY—Fair tonight and Sunday. Warner, tonight.

Ex-Kaiser's Fiancee Has Some Views Of Her Own About Homes

LONDON, October 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Princess Hermine of Bruse, who is soon to become the bride of the former German Emperor, seems to feel that while she is secluded home at Doorn is a nice restful place, and all that, she would not want to live there every day in the year. She is reported to have told William that she will be unable to stay at Doorn for more than four or five months each year.

The former Kaiser is worrying a good deal over complying with her wishes for certain alterations in the home, according to dispatches to the Daily News. Recently the princess gave him some rather comprehensive indications of her views as to how the place should be changed. Accordingly William is doing his utmost to make the residence as agreeable for her as possible.

The Daily News correspondent says the wish of the former Kaiser to have the bells of the neighboring countryside rung on his wedding day, is not likely to be gratified.

Times And The Wet Amendment

Editor of The Portsmouth Times:

Though this is not a partisan issue there are always a few narrow-minded people who try to prejudice a moral or patriotic question by branding it as "politics." In the noble stand that you have taken for the defense of the Constitution of the United States against the wet aggression it is well that your patrons should realize that your position is unprejudiced and patriotic in the highest degree. A voter does not have to be a total abstainer in order to be loyal to the Union; but he does have to support the Constitution of the United States if he is loyal to the Union. Undoubtedly there are many men and women who reserve to themselves the personal right to take an occasional drink of wine or beer, when it can be obtained in a legitimate way. But they have no respect for bootleggers, and other liquor law-breakers. Still less will they countenance treason against the government. They will patriotically abstain, and deny themselves, rather than betray their fidelity to law and order.

They agree with Chief Justice Marshall, one of the two members of the supreme court who dissented from the majority opinion of that body, that the inevitable trend of the proposed wet amendment to the Constitution of Ohio, is toward nullification and anarchy. They know that if any special interest, or combination of men, may be granted exemption from obedience to the laws of the nation for their own selfish ends, then so can any other such aggregation of self-seekers, and that would be the end of government. And no one can deny that this is the purpose of the brewers and distillers—to evade the national Constitution in trying to betray the public into voting for this anarchical proposition. It is simply and solely a selfish commercial motive on their part.

Unfortunately the unappeasable appetite for rum among the former victims of the banished saloon lends itself to the purpose of this traitorous amendment. The liquor traffic always did live by commercializing the weaknesses and the vices of the race. That is its innate spirit. It is today just what it always was. It secretly aids all the bootleggers, and the rum-runners, and the moonshiners, in order that it may cut out that prohibition does not prohibit, and that the remedy is to legalize the manufacture of beer and wine.

The citation of the Clevelander, Watchman, and Democrat quotes your editorial in an article in the Ohio State Journal, on this threatened anarchy, and strongly re-emphasizes your assertion that it is nothing less than an attempt to nullify the Constitution of the United States, and to resurrect the old political heresy of States Rights, which was shot to death on 500 bloody battlefields of the great Civil War. It declares that an amendment to re-establish slavery would be a no more flagrant violation of the thirteenth amendment, than this one would be of the eighteenth and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land, and the judges in every state shall be bound thereby, anything in the constitution or laws of any state to the contrary notwithstanding. The senators and representatives before mentioned, and the members of the several state legislatures, and all the executive and judicial officers, both of the United States, and of the several states, shall be bound by oath or affirmation to support this constitution.

Let every man and woman read, and digest that provision of the Constitution of the United States, and then see if he or she can square it with their conscience and their loyalty to the flag to vote for the traitorous wet amendment. To do so is in effect to ask Ohio to disclaim its allegiance to this great republic, and to secede from the Union. It is the bid of judges to hold out as an incentive to this disloyalty, taxing the liquor traffic for a bonus fund, or for any other revenue reason. This proposal, also, is as false as it is ignominious. The liquor propaganda will know that a prohibited thing cannot be legalized. That is a contradiction in terms. An era of free rum, with every home a possible saloon, would be the absolute, active. This we will show hereafter. If the majority of the citizens of the United States want the return of legalized liquor manufacturing and selling, there is a legal way to bring that about, which we will also show later. But that is not the issue which the rum traffic have forced upon us at the cost of over $100,000 in taxes to the State this November election. Hammer away then, Mr. Editor, and be assured that the majority of good citizens will stand by you to the end.

JOHN COLLINS JACKSON.

Elementary Football Results

Union street, Offshore street, McKinley and Bond street were the four winners in the elementary school league football games played Friday afternoon and this morning on the Sixteenth street lot.

The Union street eleven won over Sciotoville Friday afternoon, 3 to 0. The game being won by a drop kick from the toe of Center Brock in the last three minutes of play. The kick was made from the 25 yard line.

This morning Offshore played Garfield and won 20 to 6. Jones, Rose and Ury started for the victors. It was Offshore's first victory for they have played two, tie games. They have not been defeated.

McKinley trimmed the fast Highland eleven, 20 to 6. Barker, in the McKinley backfield, proved a real star. He could hit the line or run around end and always made a gain.

The last game of the morning was the Bond and Masse contest. Both teams scored in the first quarter soon after play started. Bond made the first touchdown with Jimmy Sprague and Multer carrying the ball for big gains on end runs. Multer made the first touchdown. Masse then opened up a bag of trick plays that completely surprised the tacklers of the opposition and within a few seconds crossed the Bond goal line, Allard carrying the pigskin around end. In the second half Bond added two more touchdowns but could not make their "goal points."

SCOUTS BEAT PEEBLES ELEVEN

The Portsmouth Boy Scouts, Nature Troop, won a victory yesterday from The Peebles High School by the score of 31 to 6. Every member of the team played a splendid game. This is a very fine victory because of the fact that our boys were out-weighted twenty pounds to the man. The Scouts report that they were treated royally. A dinner was given in their honor. A return game is to be played here within the next three weeks and this promises to be a very interesting engagement. The big feature of the trip was the fine sportsman ship of the Peebles boys and the fine way they treated the Scouts.

School Board Sells Drew Property To A. Schapiro

Considerable business was transacted at the regular meeting of the city Board of Education Friday. A. Schapiro's bid of $700 for the former Ellen Drew property, just north of the high school addition, was accepted. Terms of sale are that the house is to be moved without any damage to the big shade trees in front of the house, a ten room frame structure purchased some months ago by the School Board. This lot was necessary, as a state law demands so much open space between the high school structure and the nearest building.

The Board approved the action of the auditorium committee in granting the Republican committee the use of the high school auditorium for the Governor Morrow meeting last night. A request from the Sons of Veterans for the use of the building for a home entertainment on January 8 and 9 was granted. J. F. Dudley, representing the Ministerial Association, asked for the use of the auditorium on Sunday, November 5, when Rev. George Wood Anderson will address a fully of the prohibition forces. His request was granted with the understanding that the Association will pay the cost of heating.

The recommendation of Superintendent Frank Appel concerning the appointment of Miss Sylvia C. Sicha as teacher of Retail Salesmanship in the local high school, met with approval of the board. Miss Sicha is present Assistant Professor of Education at the Ohio State University and is said to be a most proficient instructor in this branch of modern learning. Her salary will be $2500 per year.

Between 150 and 200 persons from Wellston, Jackson, Oak Hill, Ironton, Coalton, Waverly and Portsmouth were in attendance at the district school of the Degree of Pocahontas which opened here this afternoon and will conclude with tonight's session.

The attendance and interest displayed at the opening session this afternoon indicated one of the best schools ever held by this district comprising seven lodges in the above mentioned places. Each lodge was well represented today.

This afternoon the entire time was given over to instructions, the school being conducted by the District Deputy, Great Pocahontas Mrs. Mary E. Boylan of this city. Mrs. Minnie Lawson of Cleveland, Great Pocahontas of Ohio is also present and will make talks during the two sessions.

Supper will be served in the hall by White Rose Council members of this city. This evening there will be degree work for a class of about six candidates. The work will be put on by the degree team from the Wellston lodge. This degree team is known as one of the best in the state and it will be a treat for district members to watch the work conferred tonight. A social session will conclude the program tonight.

SOCIETY

The goals of Fun and Frolic reigned supreme last evening in the gymnasium of P. H. S., where the Annual Senior Mirth Festival, the F. A. F., was held. Many students were present, many of them devotees of the Spirit of Halloween, garbed in the fantastic costume demanded by their weird and mystic deity.

The revelry continued until midnight.

A delightful Halloween party was given last evening by the Misses Ella and Mildred Bradbury at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bradbury, of Harrisonville. The rooms were cleverly decorated in yellow and black Halloween novelties.

Quite a crowd of young folks masked and ready for an evening of fun awaited the three machines from Portsmouth.

A jolly good time was enjoyed by all. The evening was spent in playing various games and music and at a late hour delicious refreshments were served to the Misses Vina and Verna Stuter, Helen Jones, Eva Snyder, Hazel Lockhart, Lulu White, Hazel Clark, Anna and Louella Kanouse, Minda Erwin, Marie Jones, Grace Mary, Gertrude, Ella and Mildred Bradbury.

Mrs. Frank Erwin, Mrs. and Mrs. McKinley Martin and two children, Richard and Marjory, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gendary.

Miss Onetta Schusky of 876 Grimes avenue entertained a number of friends Thursday evening at her home with a Halloween party. The rooms were decorated in keeping with the Halloween season, in addition to chrysanthemums and daisies. The evening was spent in games and music, after which refreshments of orange cream and cake, pumpkin pie and hot chocolate were served to the following guests: Misses Beatrice Adams, Mildred Reilly, Vivian Peel, Merle Lorn, Goldie Schneider, Edith Williams, Dorothy Loft, Clara Sheehy, Hannah Reider, Thelma Chick, Thelma Woods, Mrs. Verna Reider, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Keefe and son Dan, Mrs. H. C. Woods and Messrs. Elda Weltman, Edgar Thompson, Joe Spriggs and Herbert Wilson.

A Halloween party was given Friday night at the home of Miss Goldie White. The rooms were attractively decorated with fall flowers and black and orange decorations. Games and music were the evening's entertainments. Refreshments were served to the following guests: Messrs. Helen Ross, Ruth Heit, Clara Blair, Lucille Curmiste, Fern Wheeler, Norma Sam Francisco, Georgia and Ruth Blair, Dorothy Davis and the hostess.

Messrs. Forest Kezley, Gerald Malone, Amos Moore, Edwin Montgomerie, Herman Montz, Alvin Newman, George Alexander, Arlin Hunt, Harold Schneider and Virgil White.

Peerless Lodge No. 271 will give a mask Halloween party at their hall on Gallia street Monday evening. The festivities will begin at eight o'clock and all friends and their wives and sweethearts are cordially invited to be present.

Mrs. John L. O'Brien and son Paul and Mrs. Wesley Phillips of Gallipolis, noticed here today and attended the Gallipolis-Portsmouth football game.

Court House

Sent to Jail for Contempt

Miss Martha Yarhaus, 637 Sixth St., employed at the Union Glove Company, was sentenced to spend ten days in jail by Judge Thomas Saturday morning when, during the course of a hearing on the application of John Crickenberger, N. and W. Co., to modify a former order of the court in respect to the amount of alimony allowed his wife, Ellen Crickenberger, 542 Sixth street, she brazenly admitted having declared that "she was going to bust up the order of the court, requiring Crickenberger to pay his wife the sum of $25 a week."

The sentence followed on the heels of admissions made by Miss Yarhaus that she had been keeping company with Crickenberger, accompanying him to dances once a week and that he had spent money "showing her a good time." Miss Yarhaus also stated that she had objected to Crickenberger paying $25 a week to his wife, declaring she thought the amount was too much.

In passing sentence the court scored Miss Yarhaus and told her that she was playing the part of a vamp and violating every moral law by her associations with a married man. She was warned that if she persisted in importing Crickenberger to pay her attention that she would spend every other week in jail. The court also warned Crickenberger in refusing the alimony from $25 to $20 a week after he stated his wages had been cut, to keep away from the Yarhaus woman and that failure to heed the injunction would mean that he, too, would go to jail.

Miss Yarhaus was made defendant in a suit filed Friday by Mrs. Ellen Crickenberger in which the latter demanded $10,000 damages for alleged abduction of affections of her husband.

Pancake Gets Decree

Governor Morrow In Accident

It became known here today that Governor Edwin Morrow of Kentucky, who has been campaigning in Ohio in behalf of Republican candidates and who spoke in the high school last night, was injured in an accident near Lucasville Friday evening. The automobile he was riding in plunged up a bank and turned over. He was thrown clear of the car and protected his face from flying glass by holding his coat over it. Governor Morrow was only slightly bruised and will be able to fill all speaking engagements before the November election.

FIRST DRY GUN IS FIRED

The first gun was fired last night in the Dry Speaking Campaign to be repeated in all the centers in Scioto County. J. H. Finney delivered a strong address against the proposed "Dewey's Amendment at Mount Joy United Presbyterian Church last evening to a full house. He reports that the enthusiasm was beyond every expectation and that there is an assured feeling on the part of the dry voters that the amendment will be defeated in that section of the county. The chairman of the meeting is pledged to help get out a good attendance at the meeting to be held in the town at Tarden on next Wednesday evening. Mr. Finney is to be the speaker also at that meeting.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry A. Schirman arrived home this afternoon from a week's visit in Boston, Mass., where the former attended the congress of the American College of Surgeons.

Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Young and family will motor to Waverly Sunday to spend the day with Dr. Charles Pressler and family.

Bigelow Revival Closes Sunday

The service last night at Bigelow church was unusually blessed. It was a "quiet" service. Following the vivid soul-challenging sermons of the last few nights the message of Dr.
Birney, the evangelist, revealed a striking contrast.

Taking the Garden of Eden, the Garden of Gethsemane, and the Garden "where He was crucified" as the scenic background of the three great acts of redemption, Dr. Birney carried his audience through to the "day-dawn of the Resurrection." He described some of the beautiful gardens he had visited, both in Europe and America, including the "old fashioned garden at home. Then he spoke of God in the midst of His garden
"where He placed the man and the woman he had made." This garden was the expression of God's love and desire for His children. It was beautiful beyond comparison. "I would have liked to have seen the sun rise on God's garden eastward in Eden," he said, "and to have heard the dawn-chorus of those first song birds, singing among the flowers and trees with the fresh dew of the divine breath still upon them. But there came a day when the birds lost their song, and the flowers withered away in the sinister atmosphere of sin. And we see the clouds of chaos rolling down upon this first garden as sin's tragedy drove God's children out from His presence. That is sin—separation from God."

The evangelist described how God's voice has never ceased to call after His wandering children, "lost in the far away fields of sin."

Then for a few tense moments the audience was given to look upon the sorrow of Jesus in His "Midnight vigil of anguish" in the garden of Gethsemane, where "His divine hands and very face were bruised with the thorns, and his heart was broken upon the rocks of sin's awful woe."

"I never knew until recently," continued Dr. Birney, "that the color of pain was blue. And I discovered it when I looked upon the boldest conception of modern Christian art yet produced, where all this and shades of pain filled the canvas which portrayed Gethsemane."

The cup which He drank there was filled with the dregs of all the sins of humanity—your sin and mine—and that is why He shrank from it in disgust and amazement.
For well He knew that the moment it touched His lips He would feel the fire of its hellish poison burning in the agony of death—for He bore in His own body our sins upon the tree.

But He drank it to the dregs—for you and for me. For this second garden is the world's garden of sin and the Savior must needs penetrate to its own depths if He would destroy the serpent whose trail is everywhere."

In closing Dr. Birney spoke of Jesus as God's gardener, and the cross as His instrument of toil as he gave Himself on Calvary. "That by His pierced hands and feet the thorns and jagged rocks might be cleared away out of God's garden forever!
And that His children might find their way back into the garden of life and the fellowship of light."

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Miss Wise—Will you please tell me all the wedding anniversaries.

KENTUCKY READER.
First, cotton; second, paper; third, leather; fourth, fruit and flowers; fifth, wooden; sixth, sugar; seventh, woolen; eighth, Indian rubber; ninth, willow; tenth, tin; eleventh, steel; twelfth, silk and fine linen; thirteenth, lace; fourteenth, ivory; fifteenth, crystal; sixteenth, china; seventeenth, silver; eighteenth, pearl; nineteenth, ruby; twentieth, golden; twenty-first, diamond.

Dear Dolly—I am a girl thirteen years of age and am going to have a Halloween party. Will it be all right to invite boys? My mother don't object. Also tell me all the games that you know. Please publish this as soon as possible as I want to have the party soon.

A READER.
It would be perfectly all right to have the party and the boys, but you will have to think up a way to entertain them yourself. I published suggestions, etc., about two weeks ago, and made a request that those who expected to give a Halloween party clip them out and save for future use, as they were too long to print again this year. If you failed to do this, you are out of luck now.

Dear Dolly—Would you please tell me if there are any interurban cars leaving Columbus for Canton, O., or one making connection with any that goes to Canton? Also, where would I take the interurban from Columbus? By this, I mean at what street as I am not acquainted in Columbus.

MILDRED.
I can't tell you about interurban connections in Columbus, but I don't think you would have long to wait, even if you just missed one, as they usually run every hour and a half, and you could easily kill that much time "window shopping" on High street, or you could wait in the station. The Scioto Valley Traction Co. and the Ohio Electric Railway station is at Third and Rich streets. You could take the South High street car at the Union Station and get off at Rich, and walk east two blocks. There are other cars you could take, but the way I mentioned is the best, as it would be impossible to get lost riding or walking. The Columbus, Delaware & Marion Railway Interurban Station and the Columbus, Urbana & Western Station is located at 100 West Gay street. You could walk to this station from Union station, or take any car going south on High to Gay and walk west one block. However, if I were going to Canton, I believe I would rather go straight through on the train.

Dear Dolly—Will you please print a recipe for pear honey?

TIMES READER.
I have no recipe for pear honey, but here is a good one for quince honey that you might use. Of course pears contain more juice than quinces and you will need more sugar water. Take eight large quinces, six pounds of sugar, eight cups of water. Pare and grate fruit. Put fruit, water and sugar in preserving kettle and boil thirty minutes, put into sterilized jars and seal while hot.

Dear Dolly—I am a girl of 16 and have a lily white complexion, with rosy red cheeks and pretty red lips. My eyes are brown and very large. I have dark hair and keep it fixed up in style. Do you think I am pretty? I do not go with the boys very often as my parents do not like for me to. Do you think I am old enough to have boy friends? There are a lot of boys who would go with me if I would go with them, but they are not very nice. A boy friend of mine recently moved to Kentucky and I would like for you to tell me how I could get his address. He is a very nice boy and has a large machine. Would you advise me to go with him? Am I old enough to go to parties? What do you think of some girls who would run when they see anyone coming? Also of girls who run around and take joy rides with a man who is 35 years of age and has been married. He has three children. Give me your best advice.

CETIE.
From the description you gave of yourself, you must be a peach or a pippin. Your parents are right. You are not old enough, nor wise enough to go with the boys. It is all right to go in crowds to parties and entertainments, but don't go joy riding through the country with boys and men. If the friend who moved to Kentucky cared anything about you he would write and give you his address. It is not your duty to write first. If the man of 35 takes his three children with him, I see no reason why you girls should not go along if you want to. He surely would not treat you as a possible wife or sweetheart.

Fascinating Negligee

The coat of lace embellished with satin ribbons and rosebuds worn over a slip of pink satin or georgette is probably the most feminine and alluring of all garments. Incidentally, it's the sort of a garment nearly any woman can fashion for herself.

Mrs. John Bogart of Cincinnati is the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bogart of 1636 Fifth street.

The Ketchel Five Hundred Club will meet Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carl Wolfe on Third street. Instead of Wednesday afternoon, their regular meeting time. All members are asked to note the change.

Miss Dorothy Freund, a student at Ohio State University, is spending the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Freund, of 1507 Gallia street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kilbourne, Ashland, Ky., are expected during the coming week to be the guests of Mrs. Clara Geer, 423 Sinton street.

Miss Anna Louise Robb, of 920 Off-nere street, is at Carter Caves, Ky., for the week-end. Miss Robb will also visit with friends in Columbus during the coming week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lake, 616 Fourth street, were guests of friends in Ashland, Ky., Friday.

Major General and Mrs. E. T. Clark Springfield, Mass., are expected in the near future to visit with Mrs. Clark's mother, Mrs. E. J. Zeigler, 542 Sixth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Jennings Horsley, nee Pearl Johnson, are now at home to their many friends at 1202 Young street.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Morton Shipway, 1717 Timmonds avenue, are spending as their guests, Mrs. Shipway's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Anderson, Jr., Huntington, W. Va.

A party of local Ohio State students including Howard Hudson, Fred Pridle, Vivian Scott, Clyde Cuthbert, Charles Storck, Spencer Schwartz and Richard Maddock will arrive today by motor to spend the week-end with their parents.

Grinning jack-o-lanterns, weird goblins, black cats and witches were used in the decoration of the Edwin P. Fisher home, 1514 Fourth street, when Miss Ruth Marie Fisher entertained a group of little friends with a masquerade Halloween party Friday evening.

Children's games and contests afforded diversion during the evening hours and later the hostess' mother served refreshments.

The guests included, June Hollenbeck, Romana Hollenbeck, Dorothy Flowers, Richard Flowers, Mildred Dressler, Doty Taylor, Betty Mitchell, Janice Mitchell, Ruth Watkins, Betty Babcock, Hugh Bean Evans, Mabel Evans, Richard Elzkorn, Doris Elzkorn, Margaret Sellards, Dorothy Elzkorn, Alice Benton, Donald Ferguson and Harry Ferguson.

Miss Josephine Chinn, 2114 Grandview avenue, will entertain with a Halloween party at the Micklethwait Camp on Monday night. Miss Chinn's guests will include fifty intimate friends.

Mrs. John Kahmar is convalescent at the home of a relative at 634 Sixth street from the effects of a surgical operation which she recently underwent at Hempstead hospital, and hopes to soon go to her home in West Virginia.

Mrs. Frank Veazy (Frances Higgins) and daughter, Alice, are the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl B. Cookes of 1515 Fifth street. They are enroute from San Antonio, Texas, to their home in Crewe, Virginia.

MARRIAGE A LA MODE

WHEN a Chinese proposes marriage he sends to the family of the woman of his choice a card bearing his ancestral name and the eight characters which denote the hour, day, month and year of his birth.

Her family, if kindly disposed, consult a fortune teller who decides if the betrothal would be auspicious.

If the decision is favorable the girl's family present a similar card which is presented to the suitor.

Adventures Of The Twins

BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

THE next persons whom Nancy and Nick met on Mars was a wooden woman.

She was queerer even than the stone man, and rolled along on wheels.

"How do you do?" remarked Nancy politely dropping a curtsy. "Did you happen to see Mother Goose's broom?"

"No, I haven't," answered the wooden woman, shaking her head. "You're wrong. It's not a broom. It's a wheel and can't feel. I'm not as kind as I look. It's just that I get nervous at the sight of anyone working."

"I used to be a scullery maid and I scrubbed and swept and swept and scrubbed until one day I said, 'I

"You've got a very kind heart," remarked Nick.

"No, I haven't," said the wooden woman, shaking her head. "You're wrong. It's not a broom. It's a wheel and can't feel. I'm not as kind as I look. It's just that I get nervous at the sight of anyone working."

A jolly crowd of young people gathered at the home of Miss Agnes Craig of Grant street Tuesday night for a Halloween party. The evening was spent in games and music and at a late hour delicious refreshments were served to the following guests:

Olga Warren, Lucille Elssesser, Thelma Dops, Lucy Akers, Helen Tussey, Mabel Clausen, Lenora Harris, Lela Davis, Kathryn Holden, Margaret Prior, Edith Croftree, Elizabeth Baker, Jessie Horton, Josephine Dixon, Alberta Dodds, Helen Ruth, Ethel Puckett, Dorothy Schultz, Lela Atkinson, Agnes Craig, Robert Muscump, Raymond Johnson, Lyont McLaughlin, Earl Holt, Walter Shields, Roy Sarver, William Moore, Homer Cox, Howard Craig, Ray Kersey, Lawrence Flowers, Robert Barber, Arthur Gulker, Arvel Barker, and Gilbert Roberts, also John Roush, Ike Knibbe and Harvey Rose.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Earl Brand of Columbus are here for an extended visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brand, of Eighth street.

The officer knew that Jack was not an ordinary street urchin, so he took him off to one side and questioned him. Jack told him the complete story of his treasure hunt and of his many thrilling experiences.

The officer took a liking to Jack and gave him permission to continue digging for the hidden treasure. "I've told the people about here not to annoy you," he told Jack. "I sincerely hope you will find the treasure."

Jack then jumped in the hole and started to dig again. Shortly after the men and boys who had been watching him disappeared. This surprised Jack. He finds out why they left in the next chapter. Continued.

FLAMING JEWEL

by ROBERT W. CHAMBERS
© 1922 GEORGE K. DEAN COMPANY

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Through the Adirondack forests rages a savage battle for possession of the flaming jewel, originally stolen from the refugee COUNTESS THEODORICA of Esthonia by the great international thief, QUINTANA.

In Paris, Quintana was robbed of the gem by MIKE CLINCH, an American soldier, who brought the gem back to the disreputable hunting camp where he lived a life of crime ever since his legitimate business of guiding hunting parties had been destroyed years ago by the uncle of JAMES DARRAGH, going as Hal Smith, loves the countess and has sworn to restore the jewel to her.

Clinch is passionately fighting for the jewel as it represents the sole means of giving his beautiful step-daughter, EVE STRATER, the education of a lady.

Eve and her lover, TROOPER STORMONT, escape from Quintana, who with his gang has come to the camp to regain the jewel. Eve swims Star Pond with what she believes to be the real jewel in her mouth. Darragh takes what Eve thought was an empty jewel case from Quintana and finds the real jewels in a false bottom. Darragh learns that the countess and her companion are about to arrive at his hunting lodge.

Go on With the Story

CHAPTER III

It was afternoon when Darragh awoke in his bunk, stiff, sore, confused in mind and battered in body. Wier, hearing him stir, came in.

"How long have you been back? Did you meet the ladies with your silver?" demanded Darragh, impatiently.

"I got to Five Lakes station just as the train came in. The young ladies were the only passengers who got out. I waited for their two steamers and then I drove them to Harrold Place."

"Where did you say I was?" asked Darragh.

"Out in the woods, somewhere. The last I saw of them, Mrs. May had their hand bags and Jerry and Tom were shouldering their trunks."

"I'm going up there right away," interrupted Darragh excitedly.

In a pathetic attempt to spruce up, he knotted the red bandanna around his neck and pinched Salzar's slouch hat to a peak.

"You look like one of Clinch's huns," remarked Wier with naive honesty.

Her Rheumatism Has Entirely Disappeared

The successful treatment of rheumatism by taking Tanlac, is one of the outstanding features of that remarkable medicine. Thousands of people everywhere have testified that it has brought them complete relief from this torturous disease.

Mrs. M. Hickey, of 1313 Millman Ave., Toledo, Ohio, says:

"For seven years I was in a very weak, run-down condition, but my worst trouble was rheumatism, which was so bad I could hardly walk. Tanlac built up my whole system wonderfully and I hardly notice any rheumatic pains any more; in fact, I feel better than I have in years."

When the digestive system, liver and kidneys are not working properly, uric acid and other impurities accumulate in the muscles and joints, causing rheumatism. Tanlac quickly overcomes this condition by enabling the vital organs to perform their functions properly. Get a bottle today, at any good druggist. Advertisement.

Darragh hadn't a chance. Out of the bushes two pistols were thrust hard against his stomach. Quintana's face was behind them. He wore no mask, but the three men with him watched him over the edges of handkerchiefs—over the sights of leveled rifles, too.

The youthful Grand Ducness had turned deadly white. One of Quintana's men took the morocco case from her hands and shoved her aside without ceremony.

Quintana looked at Darragh over his leveled weapons.

"My friend Smith," he exclaimed softly, "So it is you, then, who have twice try to rob me of my property!"

"All you recollect?" Yes? How you have rob me of a package which contain only some chocolate?"

Darragh's face was burning with helpless rage.

TOOK THE MOROCCO CASE FROM HER HANDS AND SHOVED HER ASIDE.

"My friend Smith," repeated Quintana, "do you recollect what it was you say to me? Yes? How often it is the unexpected which so usually happens? You are quite correct, my friend. It has happened."

He glanced at the open jewel box, which one of the masked men held, then, like lightning, his sinister eyes focused on Darragh.

"So," he said, "It was also you who rob me last night of my property. . . . What you do to Nick Salzar, eh?"

"Killed him," said Darragh, dry lips, moved for death. "I ought to have killed you, too, when I had the chance. But I'm white, you see."

At the insult flung into his face over the muzzles of his own pistols, Quintana burst into laughter.

"Ah! You should have shot me. You are quite right, my friend. I must say you have behaved very foolishly."

He laughed again so hard that Darragh felt his pistols shaking against his body.

"So you have killed Nick Salzar," he continued Quintana with perfect good humor. "My friend, I am obliged to you for what you do. You are surprised? Eh? It is very simple, my friend Smith. What I want of a man who can be killed? Eh? Of what use is he to me? Voilà!"

He laughed, patted Darragh on the shoulder with one of his pistols.

"You, now you could be of use. Why? Because you are a better man than was Nick Salzar. He who kills is better than the dead."

Then, swiftly his dark features altered.

"My friend Smith," he said, "I have come here for my property. Not to kill. I have never my property. Why shall I kill you? To say that I am a better man? Yes, perhaps. But also I should be obliged to say that I am a fool. Yes! A poor daft fool!"

Without shifting his eyes he made a motion with one pistol to his men. As they turned and entered the thicket, Quintana's intent gaze became murderous.

"If I must kill you I shall do so. Otherwise I have sufficient trouble to keep me from ennu. My friend, I am going home to enjoy my property. If you live or die it signifies nothing to me. No! Why, for the pleasure of killing you, should I bring your dirty renderings on my heels?"

He backed away to the edge of the thicket, rearing one swift and evil glance at the girl who stood as though dazed.

"Listen! attentively," he said to Darragh. "One of my men remains hidden very near. He is a dead shot. His aim is at your—sweetheart's body. You understand?"

"Yes."

"Very well. You shall not go away for one hour time. After that, he took off his slouch hat with a sweeping bow—"you may go to hell!"

Behind him the bushes parted, closed.

Jose Quintana had made his exit.

CHANGE OF LIFE WOMAN'S TRIAL

Proof That Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is of Great Help at This Period

Metropolis, Illinois. — "I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it is all it claims to be and has benefited me wonderfully. I had been sick for eight months with a trouble which confined me to my bed and was only able to be up part of the time when I was advised by a friend, Mrs. Smith, to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills. I was so much benefited by the use of these medicines that I was able to be up and about in two weeks. I was at the Change of Life when I began taking the medicines and I passed over that time without any trouble. Now I am hale and hearty, do all my housework, washing, ironing, scrubbing and cooking, all there is to do about a house, and can walk two or three miles without getting too tired. I know of several of my neighbors who have been helped by your medicines." — Mrs. EMMA CULVER, 705 E. 7th St., Metropolis, Illinois.

Agricultural Notes

EDITORIAL NOTE—The Times has arranged for an agricultural department in each issue of The Saturday Times. The articles will be written by an expert and we unhesitatingly advise their careful reading. They may be of great profit to you.

"It just shows what a community can do for itself," said W. J. Shannon, formerly president of the Seneca County Farm Bureau, after he had looked over the live stock exhibits at the Empire Grange Community Fair on Thursday, its opening day.

Mr. Shannon said that when he retired from farming near Empire Grange five years ago, there was next to no purebred livestock there, and when he had bought his farm 12 years ago the neighborhood had no purebreds at all.

On show Thursday and Friday at this small community's own fair were nearly 50 head of hogs, all purebreds of superior strain, and 25 head of purebred cattle.

Representative of the increase in interest as to good livestock were the five big-type Poland China hogs shown by Fred Moots, president of the township Farm Bureau and local leader of Boys' and Girls' Club work. Mr. Moots started in with purebred Poland Chinas three years ago and now has 16. Besides, the strain he is breeding has been taken up and developed by eleven other farmers in the community. These eleven men, in all, have 102 purebred big-type Poland China hogs on their farms. No such hogs were known in the community prior to 1919.

Eleven Shorthorns were exhibited. Dred Ross, showed seven; George Staker six; and Dan Oakes five. A purebred Shorthorn bull valued at over $500.00 and owned jointly by these three farmers also was shown.

In the junior pig club classes, all eight animals owned by boys of the township Pig Club were exhibited. Martin and Jacob Hammerstein, twin sons of Jacob Hammerstein, showed a pair of Poland Chinas that, to the untrained eye looked as much alike as their young owners. But L. A. Kaufman, county agent of Jackson county, and stock judge of the show decided that Charming Henry, owned by Martin, was the better hog. This animal he placed first in the class, ranking Jacob's hog, Great Bug, third.

At the Lucasville Fair, where judging was not only on show points but on cost of fitting animals, Jacob's hog took first in the county and won him a free trip to Club Week at the Ohio State University, Columbus, in December. Martin's animal, was placed fifth in the county contest.

W. W. Brownfield, Supervisor of Extension in southeastern Ohio, and G. A. Hustman, county agent of Lawrence county, judged a large display of farm products. Eleanor Jones, domestic science teacher at Wheelersburg high school, judged home products. Ladies of the neighborhood ran a lunch counter.

Empire Grange started its fair three years ago, holding it the first year in the open. They now have a big and cattle shed and a special shed for the club stock. Next year they plan to put up a poultry exhibit building.

Following a visit to the county last week by E. L. Barker, Extension Specialist in poultry at the Ohio State University, it is announced that the farm of E. S. Miller, Lucasville, has been inspected and approved for registration under the new poultry registration plan of the State Extension Service.

Only poultry demonstration farm owners with completed records are admitted to this project. Mr. Miller is one of three such farmers who completed the work last year, and was the only one of the three to apply for this advanced recognition.

Ten farms, however, are listed as poultry demonstration farms this year: E. D. Laine and Frank Knoch, who completed the work last year, and A. H. Jones, Howard Compton, Eliza Cook, Mrs. B. C. Moulton, Mr. Cockrell and John Goodman, who are entering upon their first year of effort.

A monument to Shorthorn cattle will be unveiled tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon near the Portsmouth turnpike, four miles south of Chillicothe, on the old Rennie farm. On this farm, 80 years ago tomorrow, was held the first public auction of Shorthorns in America.

"This will be the first monument ever erected in America to commemorate an historical event in our cattle history," remarks C. S. Plumb, Professor of Animal Husbandry at the Ohio State University, and continues: "In 1833 a group of about 50 men at Chillicothe organized 'The Ohio Company for Importing Improved Cattle.' They commissioned Felix Rennie and two associates to buy in England. Nineteen head of Shorthorns were subsequently landed in this country, and driven inland to Chillicothe. Further importations were made in 1835 and 1836. All of these importations, conducted under great difficulties, created national interest."

On October 29, 1836, a public auction of 47 cattle was held on the Rennie farm. They brought an average of $800. This was the first auction sale of Shorthorns in America, and thus it became an epoch-making event in livestock history.

"The Ohio Shorthorn Association has elected the monument in honor of Mr. Rennie, an outstanding figure in American livestock history, and in commemoration of this sale."

The unveiling program begins at 2 o'clock Sunday. Leading livestock men will deliver addresses.

New Boston Fire Chief Is Found Guilty Of Disorderly Conduct Charge Made By Woman

Fire Chief Raymond Haselip of New Boston was found guilty of a disorderly conduct charge in Mayor W. B. Newberry's court at New Boston this morning and was fined $10 and costs, amounting to $20.80. Asked by Mayor Newberry if he would resign his position as Fire Chief, Haselip did not answer in the affirmative or negative, but replied: "That is what you have been wanting from the beginning." Asked later if he intended to resign, he said that he had not yet made up his mind and was still on the job.

The charge against Haselip was preferred by Mrs. Stella Potts, who claimed that Haselip and John Counts approached Mrs. Gladys Crabtree and herself and invited them to take a ride in an automobile.

Both young men pleaded not guilty when called before Mayor Newberry the first time. Friday afternoon, during another hearing of the case, John Counts, who had previously pleaded guilty and was fined, was called as a witness and he testified that Stephen Lewis, a high school boy, was with him and that Haselip was not out with him on the night of October 23. The trial was then continued until this morning so Lewis could be called into court. Yesterday after the trial was over Counts later went to Mayor Newberry and said he wanted to tell the truth, and in a signed confession said that he had made false statements on the witness stand, that Stephen Lewis did not have anything to do with the case and was an innocent party in the matter, that Haselip was the other person with him in the machine, and that it was suggested by Haselip that they get Lewis to say he was with Counts in order to clear Haselip. Concluding his signed story of the trouble, Counts said that he was sorry that the false statements had been made, for they were untrue. Lewis, who returned to the village from Oatlettsburg last night, was called before Mayor Newberry, who asked him what he knew about the case. Lewis told the same story as Counts on the witness stand, that he was not, not realizing the seriousness of the affair.

This morning Haselip appeared without his attorney, Judge Harry Ball, and when confronted with the signed statements did not have any remark to make whereupon Mayor Newberry found him guilty and fined him $10 and costs.

Mayor Newberry this morning said that perjury charges may be preferred as the result of the false statements made under oath during the trial.

Community Fair Closes; Is A Success

Community Fairs held by Empire Grange during the two past years were most successful but they did not compare with the fair held this year and which closed yesterday after being open for two days during which time it is estimated close to 1500 people attended.

All the exhibits were bigger than ever before. County Agent L. A. Kauffman of Jackson county judged the livestock yesterday while Miss Eleanor Jones of the domestic science department, Wheelersburg, judged the fancy work, baked goods and canned fruit displays.

County Agent George Justman of Lawrence county judge the fruit and small grain. All three gave instructive talks on both days.

Daniel Oakes and Fred Mootz, officers of the fair are to be congratulated on the success of this year's undertaking.

these are established facts; they are not mere impressions of casual observation on which so much of the talk of prohibition being a failure is based. Dr. Richard C. Cabot, the eminent professor of clinical medicine at Harvard Medical School, says of this survey: "The outstanding conclusion is, I think, that to the poor, prohibition in Massachusetts has been a signal blessing. The rich may, for all we know, be as foolish as ever, but beyond any question the poor are better off. I believe this report represents the truth as nearly as statistics and the first-hand observation of social workers can give it."

Robert A. Wood, an official of long experience with the liquor traffic and its victims says: "This exhibit will serve effectively to adjourn the discussion of prohibition from the region of casual impression and hearsay to that of the comprehensive and total facts. And it can leave no doubt in the open mind as to what the facts are down to date." Good people in Ohio should be governed by such data in casting their vote on the Wet Amendment November 7, for a corresponding survey in this state would doubtless be even more favorable to prohibition.

FREE BIBLE LECTURE

—IN—

EASTLAND THEATRE SUNDAY EVENING

October 29th at 7:30

Six thousand years of human history are in the past, and despite the boasts of modern civilization, that we are slowly evolving to a better state, mankind has just emerged from the most diabolical war of all times. The natural consequence is a lowering of moral and physical standards, the world over. Instead of the prophesied "spiritual uplift" and prosperity, the aftermath of the war is a world-wide crime wave, famine, pestilence, social and political disorder and unrest. What is the remedy? What hope is there for a better day? Are the dark clouds of trouble surrounding the world the harbingers of a colossal universal disaster, or will Divine Intervention save the race? In this comforting lecture the speaker will produce evidence that the kingdom of God is already in process of establishment and that there are millions of people who will never go into the tomb. This kingdom is not a far off mysterious something which has nothing to do with practical human affairs, but is a literal government in the earth which will solve every problem which confronts the world and satisfy the desires for life, liberty and happiness of every living creature. True — there have always been wars, famines, social and political disturbances. How do we know — how can we be sure that these present difficulties the past great world war, etc. are the wares, the revolution, the pestilences and the famines of Scriptural Prophecy?

Come and Hear Dr. W. H. Spring

This lecture has comforted multitudes bereaved by the world war, epidemics and attending sorrows. So great has been the demand that it has been amplified and published in book form, including 500 Scriptural proof texts. Those unable to hear the lecture may have a copy by sending 25 cents to Dr. L. H. S. A. 812 Broadway, Portsmouth, Ohio.

DEATH CALLS D. E. THOMAS

Assistant Postmaster D. E. Thomas died in Mr. Carmel hospital, Columbus early Friday evening from the effects of a serious operation he submitted to on October 19.

Apparently he rallied splendidly from it and his recovery seemed assured. His condition continued to show improvement until last Thursday when physicians observed that Mr. Thomas had developed serious complications. On Friday his condition became decidedly worse and his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Brumby were called to his bedside, arriving there before Mr. Thomas passed away. His faithful wife had been with him from the day he entered the hospital. When it was seen yesterday that Mr. Thomas' condition had become exceedingly dangerous his local physician and a special nurse were called to the Capital City, but their services were not needed.

Few of Mr. Thomas' legion of friends realized that he was so dangerously ill and the news of his passing away will come as a shock to them. They believed that he was sufficiently rugged to safely pass through the crisis of his illness, but it was not to be and with loved ones at his bedside, popular, affable and courteous "Davy" Thomas, as he was affectionately known by his countless friends passed to his eternal reward. While he had not been in the best of health for several years his condition did not assume a serious phase until several weeks ago when he was advised to undergo an operation for the removal of gall stones. Apparently it was a success, but when unforeseen complications developed Mr. Thomas soon passed away.

So suddenly was the change for the worse that a post mortem examination was held today to determine the exact cause of death.

David Elias Thomas was born in this city in April of the year 1868, and had made his residence in Portsmouth practically all of his life. He was the son of Daniel and Jane Thomas, deceased.

For a few years he was telegraph operator and ticket agent of the Norfolk and Western railroad at Locustville, but, with the exception of this period of his life, he always lived in Portsmouth.

Mr. Thomas was survived by his widow, Mrs. Keturah Morgan Thomas, 1129 Fourth street, one daughter, Mrs. John Brumby of Waller street, and one granddaughter, Jane Ann. Mr. Thomas has been assistant postmaster here for a number of years, and his conduct of that office has been efficient and capable.

He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, where he served on the Board of Deacons, and was president of the Men's Bible Class.

Mr. Thomas was a thirty-second degree Mason, and a Knight Templar. He had long been prominent in all phases of Masonry and will be missed there almost as much as he will be in his own home. He was devoted to every ideal promulgated by the lodge he so dearly loved and his counsel and wisdom will be missed.

Mr. Thomas was a man among men and he was always happy when surrounded by a group of his friends. He loved to relate a story and fitted into any little group in which he happened to be thrust. He was a devoted husband and an affectionate father and Portsmouth lost one of its most progressive citizens when Mr. Thomas answered the call of his Master, whom he had served so faithfully. With the arrival of the body here from Columbus the funeral arrangements will be completed.

West Virginia News Briefs

(By the United Press)

MOUNDSVILLE — Moundsville may soon become one of the leading aviation centers in the country, following the inspection of Langley field here by Major Maxwell Kirby, air officer of the United States air service with headquarters at Columbus, Ohio.

The sum of $10,000 is to be expended in the near future for the improvement of the landing field. Facilities for night flying are to be provided.

MORGANTOWN — Twenty-five guests at the Uneda Hotel annex were rescued when the first floor of the structure, occupied by a furniture store, was gutted by flames.

CHARLESTON — More than 300 mines are in full operation in this district.

CHARLESTON — Jimmy Carson and Clyde Elkins entered pleas of guilty before Judge Black, in Interstate court here to the charge of robbery in connection with the recent theft of $7,000 in bonds and other securities from the office of William A. Ohlby, local capitalist.

SISTERVILLE — William Kent, of Bethesda, and Dorsey Kent and Samuel Hubbard, of Sistersville, all representing convincing alibis, were freed by Marshall county authorities who detained them as suspects in the unsolved killing of James F. Hatfield, whose body was found in the river last July.

HUNTINGTON — One of the county's biggest hauls of moonshine whiskey was made when a squad of officers found 50 gallons of the liquor concealed in a secret compartment of a closet in the residence of Harry LeGrand, at Cross Roads. Thomas Switzer, found in the house, was placed under arrest. Officers discovered the cache after tapping the walls of every room in the house.

CARD OF THANKS

We, the wife and stepson of Emory Blanton whose demise occurred Oct. 25th, at his home Stanton avenue, desire to express our heart-felt thanks and appreciation to all who in every way, by sympathy, service or presence showed their willingness to render assistance to the living and respect in burying the dead. It would be impossible for us to express our feeling but we send these few words of gratitude to do our best to remind our friends and neighbors that their kindnesses are not unnoticed by us.

MRS. ADA BLANTON,
HARRY EARL.

DEATH CALLS D. E. THOMAS

CLARKSBURG — Burus received when her dress caught fire from flames of an open grate, caused the death of Mary Burbour, five-year-old daughter of James and Rosa Burbour, of Dawson mines.

WESTON — Ora L. Stoneking, 28, of Hackers Creek, is at liberty in Canada, following his escape from custody when arrested on a statutory charge. Local authorities reported. Measures have been taken with federal authorities in Washington to ask the Canadian government to re-arrest the fugitive. Stoneking was arrested on an indictment charging him with criminal assault on two girls, both under sixteen years of age.

WHEELING — Major Milo P. Fox, in charge of this district of the Ohio river, with headquarters at Huntington, has set November 9 as the date for hearing any possible objection that may arise from river interests to the application of the Wheeling Steel Corporation for permission to construct a power crane and dredge at Bonwood.

SUTTON — Rev. S. K. Arbuthnot, formerly of Wheeling, is to become pastor of the local Methodist Episcopal Church.

Catlettsburg Beats New Boston Hi

Defeated 20 to 0 the Catlettsburg High School eleven of New Boston, was by no means showed under when they met Catlettsburg on the Kentuckian's field yesterday afternoon. Catlettsburg with a more experienced team made up of good sized players, proved too big a problem for the New Boston lads, who are now in their second season in the football world. The New Boston lads, in comparison with the heavier and more experienced team, made a good showing. In the first half the score was 0 and 0, but in the second half with two of New Boston's backfield players out of the game, Catlettsburg started their scoring machine which could not be stopped. Stratton, quarterback and Staten, halfback, were the players taken out of the game on account of injuries. Stratton an injury to his leg which kept him from walking, while Staten had an injured neck. Three touchdowns and two "one points" were made by Catlettsburg after these two players left the field.

Smoke House Eleven Vs Chillicothe Sunday

The Piggskin Buccaneers of Chillicothe, a hard fighting, grim visaged crew which cruises under the sweetly euphonic title of "Sunny Brook Eleven" will be the attraction at Millbrook tomorrow afternoon. They have sent telegraphic communication to Manager Russ Haley, Smoke house eleven, that they plan an invasion of the Peerless, Sunday, with the malicious intention of snatching a victory from the gallant lads of the Scarlet and Gray. Be the intention that as it may it will probably be a disappointed Chillicothe aggregation which on tomorrow afternoon after the game returns to the local county metropolis. Sunny Brook has a real team. No one can deny the fact. But they are going to have to put up "some" fight against the locals who have never been in better shape this season. The big game will begin at two-thirty sharp.

ORIOLES TO PRACTICE TONIGHT

The Oriole basketball quintet will hold its first practice session this evening at seven o'clock. Every man is urged to be present at this time as it is essential that the team be in the best possible shape when it journeys to Winchester on November 3, at which time the local court artists will clash with the speedy aggregation which holds the championship of Adams county.

The Orioles are looking forward to a season replete with victories.

HUNTINGTON HI BEATS ASHLAND

Ashland high, defeated here by P. H. S., on October 20, was defeated by Huntington high Friday afternoon by a score of 20 to 0. The big Huntington eleven outmanned the Kentucky squad in every department of the game. Fullback Heberlein tearing big holes in the Ashland line. The end runs which Ashland tried a number of times were stopped by the Huntington ends and halves. Laid quarterback, was the star for the Ashland eleven. He featured by running back punts for 20 and 30 yards.

NEW BOSTON

All officers and members are requested to attend special meeting of New Boston Council, No. 288, Jr. O. U. A. M. in Davis hall, Gallia and Glenwood avenue, Sunday afternoon to make arrangements for the funeral of Brother Cecil Patton.

C. KETNER, Councilor.
C. S. WOLFE, Rec. Secretary.

The services at the Baptist church were well attended Friday night and Rev. Tillis of the First Baptist church gave a very good message on the subject, "The Man Who Died for Me."

Rev. P. H. Hughes, former pastor of the church, will preach morning and evening at the Sunday services.

His subject, Sunday a. m. will be "Remember the Lord" and in the evening "Jesus Christ, the Fountain of Life."

The Misses Nora Shaffer and Ruth Lawson delightedly entertained with a Halloween party Thursday evening at the latter's home on Gallia street.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with jack-o'-lanterns, pumpkins and autumn leaves. The guests unmasked amid much merriment and games and music were then enjoyed. At a late hour a delicious luncheon of sandwiches, doughnuts and coffee was served to the following: Misses Ruth Gilkerson, Gertrude Richter, Jean

W. D. Scott of Tronton spent yesterday with relatives here.

Mrs. Oscar Huffman of Wheelersburg spent today with relatives here.

Mrs. Edward Huffman of Vine street was the guest Thursday evening of Misses Lizzie and Zora Kegley of Grace street.

The little son of Mrs. Susie Hudson is seriously ill at his home on Gallia avenue.

An old fashioned quilting bee was held all day yesterday at the home of Mrs. John Henning of Gallia avenue. The time was spent in quilting and social chat, and at the noon hour a delicious dinner was served. Covers were laid for Mesdames John Caudley, Lewis Sizmore, Lawson Sloan, Will Brown, Will Jenkins, T. E. Emory, W. T. Evans and Mrs. John Henning and family.

Miss Hazel Shaner of Long Meadow is visiting friends here.

Mrs. L. E. Robertson and Mrs. S. Sturgill spent yesterday with friends in Portsmouth.

Ruth, Kathryn and Elizabeth Simms of Portsmouth are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Laura Simms of Glenwood avenue.

Mrs. Ernest Starke of Gallia avenue are the proud parents of a son born recently. The little lad has been named Ernest Eugene.

Mrs. Pleasant Lutz and son Donald Eugene of Harrisonville avenue, spent yesterday afternoon with her sister, Mrs. J. C. Whitaker of Rhodes avenue.

Sciotoville and Wheelersburg

Miss Clara Roberts entertained a circle of friends with a Halloween party last evening at her home on Farney avenue. The rooms were prettily decorated with witches, black cats and ghosts. In keeping with the season, Halloween games were enjoyed and at a late hour refreshments of sandwiches, pickles and hot chocolate were served. The list of guests included Bernice Stewart, Bonny Lou Warnock, Blanche Green, Melba Bell, Lillian Payne, Ella Louise Martin, Marie Dever, Ruth Leicher, Ruth Bachman, Maurine Brock, Lena Shump, Virginia Bush, Leona Carr, Elizabeth Reinhardt, Thomas Bennett, Howard Hutches, Thomas Taylor, Joseph Sloan, Raymond Clark, Marion Martin, Blaine Stewart and Wayne Cole, Carl Stedman, Charles Bell, Elinor Brown, Guy Bailey and Gilbert McQuillen.

Miss Dorothy Moore of Tronton is visiting friends here.

Miss Lorena Brock of Portsmouth is the week-end guest of Miss Melba Bell of Farney avenue.

Prof. R. B. Reed and Misses Florence Page, Helen Kennedy, Charlotte Schofield and Rachel Donalds will return tomorrow from Cincinnati, where they have been attending teachers' convention.

Mrs. Frank Williams of Farney avenue, who has been ill for some time, remains about the same.

The cafeteria supper, which was held Thursday evening in the basement of the M. E. Church, was a decided success.

Mrs. A. L. Smith of Tronton is spending the week-end with friends here.

La A. Perry of Oak Hill was a business visitor here recently.

WHEELERSBURG

An old-fashioned quilting bee was held all day Thursday at the home of Mrs. Arch Bussey of Happy Hollow.

The time was spent in quilting and social chat and at noon a delicious chicken dinner was served to Mrs. Fred Gahler, Mrs. Henry Grashel, of Portsmouth, Mrs. Willard Allard of Long Meadow, Mrs. Minnie Grashel and Mrs. Dudley Ashley of Allegheny Hills, and Mrs. Arch Bussey and family.

Road Oscar Huffman of Hayport Road stopped in Portsmouth today.

Mrs. John Collard of Pine Creek and daughter, Mrs. J. H. Spencer, of Dayton, Ky., were visitors to Portsmouth today.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morris and daughter, Helen Irene, will move the first of next week to Glenwood avenue, New Boston.

Misses Violet Marsh of Sciotoville and Helen Simms of New Boston were guests today of Mrs. C. A. Conklin of Dogwood Ridge.

Wiggins, Bested
BOSTON, Oct. 28—Gene Tunney, former light heavyweight champion, was awarded the decision over Chuck Wiggins, Indianapolis, in 10 rounds.

OBITUARY

Paul Richard Holback

Paul Richard Holback, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Holback, of Black Fork, Ohio, passed away at seven o'clock Friday morning after a short illness of Bright's disease. He was born August 13, 1917, and was five years, two months and seven days old. Those surviving are his mother, seven brothers and three sisters. Funeral services were held at Jackson Furnace, Rev. Guy McDaniel officiating. Interment was in the Jackson Furnace cemetery. He will be sadly missed at home and by all who knew little Paul.

Mrs. Jennie Johnson
Mrs. Jennie Johnson, aged 73, who years ago resided in Portsmouth, passed away Saturday morning at her home on First avenue, Columbus, death being caused by heart trouble. The body will arrive here Monday on the noon N. & W. train and will be taken to Greenlawn for burial, short services to be held at the grave. The deceased was the widow of Thelma W. H. Johnson and is survived by two sons and a daughter, Charles of Sciotoville, and Arthur and Mrs. Pearl Bower of Columbus. Mrs. Johnson was kind and charitable to all and will be missed.

Fern Nagel

Everlasting sleep about twelve o'clock Friday night, claimed Fern Nagel, infant daughter of Albert and Madeline Nagel, of 1420 Fourteenth street, near, pneumonia caused death after about a day's illness. The child was three months and twenty-two days old.

The parents have three other children, Virginia, Raymond and Carol. The father is employed as a machinist at Norfolk, Va. Funeral services will be held Monday morning.

Cecil Patton

Death about 8:30 o'clock this morning claimed another World War veteran and a former Co. K member, when the final summons came to Cecil Patton at his home, 1511 Fourth street, death was caused by kidney trouble after a long illness.

Cecil Patton, who was well known in this city, enlisted in Co. K, the local national guard organization, and left here with that outfit for camp. He later served overseas and it is thought that his health was broken down while fighting over there. He was single and about 25 years of age. One brother, John Patton, of New Boston, survives.

The deceased was a member of James Dickey Post No. 24, American Legion and a military funeral will be held probably Monday.

Mrs. Dora Jackson

After a long illness of cancer, death this morning about three o'clock claimed Mrs. Dora Jackson, of 843 Tenth street, widow of the late Lucien Jackson, the final summons coming at Hempstead Hospital, where she had been a patient for about three weeks. Over a year ago Mrs. Jackson underwent an operation

SUNDAY SCHOOL TO SEE PAGEAN

During the closing exercises of the Sunday school tomorrow morning as a climax to United Brethren Week, an episode from the Historical Pageant, "The Spirit of Otterbein," will be presented depicting the founding of the United Brethren church at almost one hundred and fifty years ago.

The scene to be presented will symbolize the triumph of light over darkness and set forth the dramatic incident, the meeting of Philip William Otterbein, a missionary to America from the Reformed church and Martin Boehm, a humble, monastic preacher, that later proved to be the inception of the church of the United Brethren in Christ, the oldest of the American born denominations.

Darkness, a figure hooded and garbed in black, will be seen gaining supremacy over the souls and minds of the people. Truth garbed in white, will enter, leading groups of Puritans, Quakers and Methodists, who though seeking the light, stumble and fall before the arrogant throne of Darkness. Suddenly Philip William Otterbein will appear with open Bible as the "one sent to shed light."

During the controversy between Darkness and the "one sent to shed light," Martin Boehm steps forth from the group of Methodists and asserts his acceptance of the True

Light. Otterbein, recognizing Boehm's kindred spirit, reaches out and places his hand on the shoulders of their young friend, looking reverently into his eyes, clasps his hand and exclaims in deep emotion "We are brethren." Then with uplifted faces, filled with hope, Truth leading the way, the groups desert Darkness and follow Otterbein and Boehm, who, linked arm in arm as brothers, go out into the world to continue the work of evangelization as the choir sings Charles O'Connell's anthem, "Send Out Thy Light."

The cast of characters is as follows:

Darkness: Frank Moon.
Children of Darkness: Evelyn McCarty, Dorothy Cramer, Evelyn Bowser, Ruth Thompson, Melba Hull, Ruth Thompson.

Truth: Miss Ella Carson.
Philip William Otterbein: Howard E. Meake.
Martin Boehm: I. B. Thompson.

Group of Methodists: Madeline Knost, Mildred Cramer, Lillian Hays.

Puritan Group: Mrs. P. C. Knost, Mrs. O. E. Phillips, Mrs. E. A. Gardner.

Quakers: Dorothy Phillips, Ruth Hays, Louise Prior, Vaughn Chestnut, Raymond Moritz.

DOUGLAS WAS POPULAR IN WAVERLY

for cancer, and although she was relieved for a while, her former good health did not return.

Mrs. Jackson was 49 years of age. She was born in Portsmouth, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Cunningham, who died in this city. The husband, Lucien Jackson, passed away seven years ago next month.

Surviving are two children, Harold Jackson and Mildred Jackson. She also leaves three sisters, Mrs. James Harry and Mrs. William Westwood, of Detroit, Mrs. F. W. Women, of Columbus, and a brother, Clarence Cunningham, of Eleventh and Findlay streets.

Mrs. Jackson was a member of the old Sixth Street M. E. church, and had been attending Trinity church for some time. She had a legion of friends in this city who will be sorry to learn of her death.

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon from the home about 2:30 o'clock, with Rev. E. H. Dally, of the United Brethren church in charge. Burial will be in Greenlawn.

WAVERLY, O., Oct. 28—The news of the death of Gordon Douglas, the youngest son of the late James A. and Elizabeth Moore Douglas, which occurred Saturday morning, October 21st, at Los Angeles, California, has occasioned the deepest regret and sorrow in this city, where the young man was born and reared.

Gordon was nineteen years of age and graduated from the local high school in the Class of 1919. About two years ago he accompanied his mother to the Pacific slope, spending a year at Seattle, where his brother, J. Malcolm Douglas, prosecuting attorney of King county, Washington, resides. The young man, who was a great nature student and lover of the outdoors, with a companion, traveled on foot from Seattle to Los Angeles, California, where he was again joined by his mother. He joined a government surveying party and was enjoying the beauties and pleasures of the California outdoors.

The custom of wearing rings upon the thumb prevailed in England until the close of the eighteenth century.

REVIEWING ONE OF THOSE VOUCHERS

WE have been devoting some of our time to looking up various of those vouchers, we have mentioned in The Times. For instance there was that one of $120.95 to the Stakelta Pen Company. This company is owned by Horney & Chapman, a retail stationery store at Chillicothe. Now we find that Clerk of Courts Edward Cunningham bought two boxes of No. 16 Rubber Bands of this company for $3.00. We understand they were quarter pound boxes. If so the price was beyond reason for these rubber bands can be bought at any local stationery store for $2 per pound. If Mr. Cunningham bought two one pound boxes he got a bargain, but incidentally he bought enough bands to almost encircle the globe.

Then Mr. Cunningham bought One Gross No. 36 Aarons Pens for $2.00. This is what is called an imprint pen, according to local dealers. In other words you can go to a pen manufacturer and if you agree to take say 100 boxes, you can have any name you want printed on their pens, without extra cost. Then you go out into the brush and make a handsome profit by selling these pens to the hicks as extra special stuff. Do you see? Well a local book store man says that he will gladly furnish this same quality pen to Mr. Cunningham for $1.50 per gross. We find that the county recorder paid $1.20 for a dozen No. 104 erasers. Our recorder can go into any retail store in Portsmouth and buy the same eraser at 10 cents apiece. It looks like he should have gotten a wholesale price from the Chillicothe salesman, does it not?

Next we find that our county recorder paid two dollars for two dozen Pencil Pencils. Now we are told that Pencil Pencils retail at the rate of two for five cents. What is the answer? Did the clever Chillicothe salesman find 'em easy and just fix any old price that came into his head?

Going over into the sheriff's office, we see where they bought a box of Gem Clips for 15 cents. You can buy 'em at local retail stores at 10 cents a box, we are informed, or if you buy 10 boxes you can have them for seven and one-half cents a box.

Then too this salesman sold our sheriff a quart of Sanford's Blue Black ink for $1.65. A local retailer says he will flood the sheriff's office with Sanford's Blue Black ink at $1.25 a quart. Just little things, Mr. Taxpayer, but it all amounts up and adds a mill now and then to the taxes you are having to pay.

Don't you think the time has come to clean out the court house? And don't you think if your elected county officers buy from retailers they should at least buy from your local retailers and keep your money in your home county?

DON'T BE BACKWARD ROY

WE are disappointed that County Auditor Roy Coburn did not rise up and shout from the house-tops when we asked him directly if he knew anything about a state inspector or examiner getting curious about some bridge repair vouchers. Since Roy is so shy we will try, as the lawyers say, to make our question a little more definite and certain. Thus we will today ask Mr. Roy Coburn if he did not, at one time, at the examiner's request, drive said examiner out to inspect some bridge repair work, or alleged bridge repair work? And will not Mr. Coburn not please now come forward and tell the tax payers as to whether or not he made the trip, as mentioned above, and if so, what did that examiner find?

There is no reflection upon Mr. Coburn in this alleged transaction, as the story comes to us, except that some of his associates may have a few bricks at him if he really did do the chaffering for this noisy state examiner.

Come on Roy, tell us what you know about "bridge repairs."

TAX SHARK LEADERSHIP

COUNTY Clerk Edward Cunningham, now chairman of the republican county campaign committee, is being boosted as the coming leader of Scioto county republicans. He is qualifying, according to his friends, to occupy the seat so ably filled by Judge A. C. Thompson and Philo S. Clark.

Maybe Edward will get there. We do not know. These are queer days and many novel and queer things happen, my countrymen. We suppose Edward will have some interesting reflections, once he gets upon the throne. For instance he may go back in memory, when he was the leading local rival of Charlie Wiltzie, he of national fame as a tax title shark. To explain, when some poor devil found himself unable to pay his taxes, they used to advertise him and sell his little home, the purchaser getting what was called a tax title. Then if the unfortunate owner did get enough money to pay up he found that he would have to pay a handsome sum to the tax buyer (they called 'em tax sharks) in order to save his home. Records at the county auditor's office show that Mr. Edward Cunningham, leader in the present republican campaign, was a most industrious and discriminating buyer of property, the owners of which were unable to pay their taxes.

We suggest that the local "Big Wind" be educated up to tell the voters all about this up-to-date tax shark leadership of his party.

SPEAKING OF BRICKS

THE republican organization and the Morning Sun seem most deeply interested in Mayor Gableman and the local paving brick trust. But how comes it that in looking so hard for something to hang onto Mayor Gableman they are overlooking the paving brick satellites playing in their own backyard? Who? Why take Mr. Sam M. Johnson, the republican candidate for representative to the legislature? Mr. Johnson has been a faithful front seat man for the paving brick trust for 10 years. When the re-surfacing question came up Mr. Johnson was the laddie boy who fired the first gun for the monopoly and he wore out a pair of perfectly good shoes trotting from home to home and business place to business place in an effort to get signers of the re-surfacing petition to withdraw their names from it.

Now one of the very important duties of the next legislature will be to clean up and clean out the state highway department. It will have to throw safeguards around the millions of the tax payers' money now handled by this department without check or hindrance; it will have to provide adequate laws to punish or curb the various road material combines who are continually fighting to control the highway department. Now do the voters of Scioto county think that Mr. Johnson, working as he did for the local paving brick monopoly, could render them service in this important matter? Contrasted with Adam Erick, who has no strings tied to him, and who stands only to represent the wishes of his constituents, ought there be a moment's hesitancy?

THERE ARE MORE COMING

To Anxious Inquirer—Yes sir, we hope to get hold of some more late county vouchers and publish them this coming week. We also hope to have some real interesting comments for the benefit of the tax payers.

SHEPPARD AND HIS PET SPY DEFENDED

WE are both amazed and shocked at the republican county organization endorsing the action of Prosecuting Attorney Sheppard in employing recognized criminals, and in paying them out of the people's tax money, in his so-called enforcement of the prohibition laws.

Let us have a clear understanding about this. Here is a man with a long criminal record, including everything from wife beating to passing bad checks. He is now in jail. But for the friendly interest of certain officials, he would now be headed for the penitentiary. Yet this man, without honor, honesty or integrity, this man whose oath would not be accepted by any reputable court in the land, is employed by the Prosecuting Attorney of Scioto county and paid with the people's money, and to all intents and purposes is just as much an official as is the Prosecuting Attorney himself. He has the right to invade your home, under a search warrant sworn to by himself. Being the character he is, he could easily "plant" any sort of "evidence" he might wish in the home or in the automobile of any person his own perverted tendencies, or the malice of a superior might indicate. What guarantee has any man that his wife or his children or his property will be respected when such jail-birds as Chester Penix are protected from their own crimes and clothed with authority by law enforcement officers?

And so we say again that we are amazed and shocked at the republican county organization even condoning, let alone defending, Prosecutor Sheppard's action in employing a check passer and a wife beater to help him "enforce the law."

Maybe the good, decent men and women of Scioto county approve of such actions as outlined above; maybe they will vote to continue such officials in power; maybe they have forgotten the famous sentence of Edmund Burke—"The poor man's home is his castle and all the power, all the might of the king of England dare not cross the threshold of the humblest home in England unless with due and regular process of law"; maybe the majority of people in this county do not want decent and orderly law enforcement with decent and orderly officials. Maybe so. But we do not believe that to be the case.

We invite your calm and thoughtful consideration to this VERY IMPORTANT question this evening.

And we believe you will agree with us that the obvious way to end such things is to vote to clean out the arrogant oligarchy of county office holders.

BEER AND LIGHT WINE

THE "beer and light wine amendment" to the constitution, to be voted upon election day, is not meeting with that grand hurrah reception anticipated by its backers. The citizens of Ohio are not boobs and suckers. They know the adoption of this amendment will mean nothing except to serve notice upon the world that Ohio is attempting to nullify the constitution of the United States. That is all there is to it. And its adoption will only tend to encourage every form of lawlessness.

There is a very solemn and very responsible duty upon each and every citizen who votes at the election on November 7th. Think it over seriously, friend, before you cast your ballot.

STAND UP, MR. KEARNS

CONGRESSMAN Charles C. Kearns is busily circulating in our esteemed midst, very much esteemed by Mr. Kearns at this immediate moment, but as to that further on.

Congressman Kearns knows that his legal and real title as an official is representative.

He knows that when the Fathers wrote the constitution, it ordained there should be for the nation a supreme body of legislators, to be called the congress of the United States; this to be the senate and the house of representatives. He knows that in their creation the members, or representatives in the house of representatives should be the representatives, the agents, of small divisions of the country, be the mouthpiece of the wishes and interests of their divisions or districts.

Taking it for granted that Mr. Kearns knows these things, listening to his professions of high esteem, we call on him to stand up and show how he has represented his district, how he has sought to show his esteem for the people of his district by his word and his vote.

That he may not esteem this demand to be general and answer it with generality, we will specify an instance or two, in which he may justify himself.

This district is essentially interested in the improvement of the Ohio river. This city of Portsmouth, particularly spends hundreds of dollars every year to promote the improvement, its industries have spent hundreds of thousands to be ready for that improvement when it is fully completed. Four of the six counties in Mr. Kearns' district—including the one in which he resides—lie along the Ohio river. They hold four-fifths of the population and as much of the wealth of the district within their borders, their property is the interest of the whole.

Yes, Mr. Kearns will do well to explain why he does not represent that interest, ay, more, why he actually opposes it and votes against it.

Then again, Mr. Kearns knows the government owns Mussel Shoals. He should know it is going to cost the government, not millions, but billions, to hold it and attempt to utilize its forces. He should know there would be a fruitful field for waste and graft, with any general benefit as the outcome a matter of the gravest improbability. He knows Henry Ford, a man of millions and vast achievements, offers to take the property off the hands of the government at a price of many millions. That, backed by the opinion of Thomas Edison, the greatest and noblest of all our inventors, he guarantees to produce and sell at a cost approximating one-fourth of present figures, fertilizer essentials. Mr. Kearns should know his district is one of the largest consumers of fertilizers in the United States. He should know a trust is keeping up the cost of fertilizers far beyond what the average farm can pay. He should know his district, essentially a farming district, outside of Portsmouth, must use fertilizers or it will utterly decay as such.

Let him tell then why he not only failed to represent his district in this matter, but, on the contrary, and most unusual for him, he didn't duck, but for once made himself active and officious in opposing approval by congress of the Ford offer.

Mr. Kearns is asking once more to be elected our representative. What is the character of his esteem for us when he signally fails and refuses to represent us in matters that are of special and direct interest to each and all of us? Oh, he goes farther than that. He does his best to see we don't get what we want.

COUNTY SALARY LIST

WE hope you read the salary list of the court house as printed in The Times, Friday evening. But we wonder if you took your pencil and figured up just how much you were paying the family trust for transacting your business? Did you realize that you taxpayers were putting out the enormous sum of $74,172.67 a year in salaries to county officials and their deputies? Quite a tidy fortune is it not?

And do you know that this sum represents but a part of the money the family trust is spending for you? There are oodles of other bills, expense accounts, special pay rolls, etc., etc., that run the sum up most amazingly. Do you farmers with dollar wheat and 60 cent corn, do you wonder at your taxes going skyward, while everything you have to sell is shooting in the other direction?

Republicans depend upon the farmers to hold them in power and keep their favorites rolling in luxury at the court house. Are the farmers of this county ever going to waken up and vote for themselves instead of salary seeking politicians?

New York-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, October 28.—In East 54th Street is an ornate shop that bears the gilded sign "Lady Nic." It is a smokeshop for women, run by women and patronized exclusively by women. The founders sensed the average female hesitancy at entering tobacco shops for men.

The shop is much like a boudoir, with comfortable chairs, gay cretines and soft lights. A "hostess" is in charge to help with cigarette selections and to serve tea, if desired. The founders are friends who had left their trail of cigarette stubs all over America and Europe.

Yet they always felt the habit was only grudgingly recognized. Out of this sympathetic kinship for sister smokers the idea was evolved and the shop is doing a prosperous business—the only place of its kind in the United States.

It is not a haunt for the chorus girl or flighty flapper. The patronage comes from the fashionable East Side sections—matrons, dowagers and debutantes. The rabble trade is discouraged. A jauntily capped page boy who opens the door is the only touch of masculinity.

To the old-fashioned, the progress of the woman smoker may come as a shock but to New Yorkers it seems to add a fresh zest to life. There are now cigarette parlors to match the latest gown or mood at "Lady Nic."

There are variously colored tips to blend with dinner frocks. The cigarette for negligence, business office and tete-a-tete. The daughter of one of America's richest society men gave her bridesmaids recently, in lieu of the usual jeweled trinkets, the expensively monogrammed cigarettes that were tipped to match complexion.

The cigarette craze wins many adherents from those who wish to be thin and thus eschew candy for cigarettes. In New York it is quite as usual for women to smoke as men, yet at a recent gathering at which I was among the humble onlookers, I could not fail to notice that the most sought after girl present was one who did not smoke or quaff the invigorating cocktail.

The biggest electrical advertising campaign Broadway has ever seen is being waged in behalf of Marion Davies, the motion picture star. In front of the theatre where her picture is showing her name is spelled out in letters seven feet high in an electric sign that completely covers the front of the building. The letters are the largest for any star in the history of the street and the sign is said to have cost $15,000.

Of course, the crowds at the pier snickered. Yet there was something pathetic to me about the week little man with a straggling mustache who stood awaiting a liner with a huge banner held aloft reading: "Welcome Home, Alice. Here is Papa!"

A laundry collector in Harlem reveals in a lawsuit that he averages $300 a week in commissions, but he says his expenses are quite heavy. It seems that he has to entertain many of the customers who favor him with their laundry.

Speaking of odd occupations, I met a man the other day who gives dashing names to men's hats—such as "The Piccadilly," "The West End" and "Nobly." He tells me that much of the popularity of the hat depends upon the name. He has spent a month puzzling over the name of a hat and sometimes it comes to him like a flash. He is under a five year contract with the firm that employs him and now and then he goes to Europe to study the hat naming possibilities. However, I still hand the coat glass washing to the artistic soul who names the Pullman cars. (Copyright 1922, By The McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)

Three Words A Day

HAZARDOUS

Adverb: Pronounced haz-ar-dus; accent on first syllable. Dangerous; risky; full of or exposing to peril or loss. As a hazardous undertaking; a risky investment; a perilous voyage.

TOPOGRAPHY

Noun: Pronounced top-o-graph-y; accent on second syllable. The art of the land; the detailed description of a particular locality, as a town, an estate, a farm or tract of land; the delineation of the features, natural and artificial, of a particular locality.

TYPOGRAPHY

Noun: Pronounced ty-po-graph-y; accent on second syllable. The art of printing; usually employed in criticizing printed matter; as "The ty-po-graph-y of a book, circular or paper" is excellent.
L. G. Reynolds Service, Richmond, Indiana.

IF YOU ARE WELL BREU

YOU realize that one of the greatest tests of good manners comes at the table and you teach a child early the proper uses of his knife, fork and spoon, and teach him to sit correctly at the table. You do not permit him to make disparaging remarks about the food and you teach him to pass lightly over any unpleasant incidents or accidents.

Teach him to bring agreeable conversation and a friendly spirit, as well as clean hands and a well-groomed appearance to the table.

Doing His Best

"They say people with opposite characteristics make the happiest marriages."
"Yes; that's why I'm looking for a girl with money."—Western Christian Advocate. (Cincinnati).

Overpaid At That

Your son has been out of college for about two years.
"Just about," replied Mr. Grabow.
"What's he doing now?"
"He calls himself a dilettante but as I understand it, there is no salary attached."

Keeping Busy

Mistress (to butler): "Why is it, John, every time I come home I find you sleeping?"
Butler: "Well, ma'am, it's this way. I don't like to be doing nothing."—Le Rire.

Her Precious Child

Little Girl (sweetly, from her bed): "Mother, am I your own darling, precious child?"
Mother—Yes, dear; go to sleep.
Little Girl—Oh, mother, am I really your own darling, precious child?

Little Girl (sternly and commanding)

—Well, then, get up and bring your own darling, precious child a drink!

A Fact

Nitt: "Is James your full, or only your half brother?"
De Witt: "He's both."
Nitt: "Pshaw—impossible."
De Witt: "Well, the only way I've ever seen him is half-full."

Gentle Hint

"You are a singular sort of girl!"
"Well, that's easily altered!"
Melbourne Punch.

Concealing Something

"Paw, why does Santa Claus wear a beard?"
"Because he has so many Christmas neckties, son."—Boston Beanpot.

Now, It's Your Play

Little Brother: "I will leave the room and you can write a number on a piece of paper, put your foot on it and I can tell you what is on the paper."
Big Brother (sneeringly): "Try it!"
Little Brother left the room and at his big brother's summons opened the door just enough to put his head in.

Little Brother (triumphant, yelling): "Your foot is on the paper!"
He ran into a servant as he rushed from the house, closely pursued by his undignified, red-faced brother.

And all I got was none.
The water streamed all down my face.
It was, oh! lots of fun.
